

Centre for Cellular and Molecular Platforms – C-CAMP,
NCBS-TIFR, GKVK Campus, Bellary Road, Bangalore 560 065.

Confidentiality and No Conflict of Interest Certificate

I hereby declare that I am aware of my obligation to respect confidentiality as a Mentor of the entrepreneurs and their business proposals presented to me as an Individual or as a part of expert panel under Karnataka Startup Advancement Program (K-SAP) through its implementation partner C-CAMP. I hereby solemnly undertake to maintain the confidentiality of the business proposals and other related information made available to me during the course of Mentorship. I shall also respect the confidential nature of the opinions expressed by other Mentors or experts during discussions. I would not publicly disclose contents, aims and objectives of the same at any time and to any person, in any manner.

Based on the title of the Business Proposal, in case of a Conflict of Interest, I will, in writing, bring it to the notice of C-CAMP as well as the entrepreneur and will not participate in the mentoring, unless there is an expressed desire by the Entrepreneur.

While the above will be applicable, it is also expressly understood that the entrepreneur is solely responsible for protecting confidentiality with regard to any and all confidential or proprietary information, including, information and materials related to molecules, compounds, antibodies, products, targets, processes, methods, assay systems, formulae, tests, equipment, data, batch records, reports, knowhow, sources of supply, patent applications, claims, ideas, specifications, sketches, computer programs, pathways, relationships with customers, consultants and employees, business plans and business developments, and financial data, and other information concerning the existence, scope or activities of any research, design, development, manufacturing, marketing, that needs to be protected.

Further it is agreed that the guidance, advice provided by me to the entrepreneur during the course of the Mentorship is provided in good faith and that the decision to heed, follow, implement the same lies wholly and completely with the Entrepreneur. To that extent, the Entrepreneur agrees to indemnify the Mentor from any consequences resulting from such information, guidance and advice.

This Mentorship will be coordinated by C-CAMP during the course of engagement under K-SAP. After K-SAP is over, the mentorship can continue independent of C-CAMP by the mutual agreement and consent of the Mentor and Mentee/Grantee.

Executed at: _____ on _____

Signature _____

Name & Address: